UNIQUENESS OF THE STATUS OF A CHILD AND FILIATION RELATIONS BETWEEN PRINCIPLES AND RULES

The uniqueness of the status of a child, consecrated in art. 315 c. c. (in the revised formulation of Law 219 of 2012), must deal with a series of regulatory data that appear to contradict this statement. More generally, then, clues of strong orderly discontinuity emerge in this field that make the identification of uniform principles problematic. In this perspective, the category of the primary interest of the child can play a unifying role.
