SYSTEMATIC MIGRATION AS AN INSTRUMENT FOR THE CONSTRUCTION OF GLOBAL CITIZENSHIP

The growing emphasis given by the United Nations to the promotion and encouragement of migrations (understood in a broad sense) with the aim of constituting global citizenship has led us to make these reflections. The general trend that we observe weakens certain human rights to privilege -with a political vision- others, trying to build a new global order. Firstly, we will make some reflections on the concept of migrant, then we will deal with some developments in relation to migrations from different international spheres, to finally visualize the drivers of this trend and consider their objectives.
